SHAPING SAN FRANCISCO

OUR SPRING 2022 PROGRAMMING IS OUTDOORS

URBAN FORUMS: WALK & TALK

These popular urban walks feature guest speakers and open conversation on history and open space.

Trek with us through San Francisco's southern neighborhoods this season.

FREE, all Urban Forums start at NOON. RSVP required: shaping@foundsf.org

Saturday, January 29

Visitacion Valley and Little Hollywood

From a Greenway to sites of industry, architecture, and agriculture, the neighborhoods on our City's southeastern border are alive with history and growth.

Saturday, March 26

Fort Funston to Stern Grove

The old coastal railway, Lake Merced, the Duel, Fleishacker Pool, the Trocadero resort, and more!

Saturday, April 9

San Bruno Mountain

Special hike through Buckeye Canyon and dense oak forests with Mountain protector David Schooley. LIMITED ATTENDANCE!

Saturday, May 28

City College to San Francisco State

Learn about the struggle for union rights and Free City College, visit the Urbano Sundial, and end at the historic SF State campus, where the 1968-69 student/faculty strikes led to the establishment of the first College of Ethnic Studies in the U.S.
